

Figure 4 Picture of the face of study from the bottom of the pit with approximate area of full seismic coverage highlighted. The post is 8 feet high. Note the fracture pattern and detail of fracture junctions and compare to the details of the migrated face section (figure 10).